

Sundeleaf Plaza

The City's newest urban park on Lakewood Bay is named after architect Richard Sundeleaf and features lawn areas, outdoor seating, a fireplace, a rain garden and stellar lake views.

Mr. Sundeleaf designed many homes and businesses in Lake Oswego, including nine homes which are listed on the City's Landmark Designation List, and the City's oldest commercial buildings which line State Street.

The park cannot be reserved and is for the enjoyment of all.

Directions

Sundeleaf Plaza 120 S. State Street
Lake Oswego, OR
See map: Google Maps

Source URL (retrieved on 08/23/2017 - 11:36pm): <http://www.ci.oswego.or.us/parksrec/sundeleaf-plaza>