

Recording new oral histories...

Become a part of history by sharing your Lake Oswego story with us. We have begun collecting new oral histories from community members!

If you have a story that you'd like to share, please submit your name and contact information to a reference librarian by phone 503.675.2540 or email loref@ci.oswego.or.us. Interviewees will be asked to fill out a pre-interview questionnaire before being scheduled for an interview. Interviews last between 30-60 minutes and are conducted by trained staff and volunteers.

Wondering what an oral history sounds like? Click here to listen to the unabridged oral history recordings conducted by Lake Oswego Public Library staff and volunteers in 1976 and published in the book In Their Own Words.
