

February 6: Victoria Trabosh's Life Changing Story

Victoria Trabosh's Life Changing Story

Wednesday, February 6, 7:00 p.m. at Oswego Heritage House, 398 10th St.

Victoria Trabosh, founding Board Member and President of the Itafari Foundation, along with members of the Rwandan community will tell their story of Rwanda. Victoria is also loaning the Heritage House photos of her trips to Rwanda which will be on display all month. Victoria had the honor of speaking at the United Nations in 2006 about what happens when we forget the cost of a holocaust or genocide. She passionately believes each of us can make a difference in the world and spreads that message wherever she goes.
