

February 25: Stafford Literary Landmark Plaque Dedication with a poetry reading by Anushka Nair

Tuesday, February 25, 6:30 pm at Lake Oswego Public Library. The American Library Association has selected the Lake Oswego Library as a Literary Landmark honoring William Stafford. Join us for a dedication ceremony as we unveil the special plaque that has been given to us. Also, hear Lake Oswego Junior High School student Anushka Nair read her poem "I am from Oregon," which is included in the book "We Belong In History: Writing With William Stafford." The book showcases a collection of Oregon middle and high-school students' poetry which was inspired by poet William Stafford's work.
