

2010 Unsung Heroes

On December 7, 2010, City Council recognized Lake Oswego's Unsung Heroes. Paul Sleeper, Dale Cleland and Marylou Colver received the Unsung Hero Award for their outstanding efforts in the community.

- Paul Sleeper donates more than 20 hours a week in the computer lab at the Adult Community Center.
- Dale Cleland has been the director of the Lake Oswego Millennium Concert Band since its inception in 1999.
- Marylou Colver researched and wrote more than 100 delightful stories that were included in the monthly mailings of HelloLO as part of the centennial celebration for 2010.
