

Resource Enhancement Projects

“Resource” refers to a stream corridor, wetland or tree grove identified on the City’s Sensitive Lands Map. Stream corridors and wetlands are identified as Resource Protection (RP) districts, and tree groves are identified as Resource Conservation (RC) districts or Habitat Benefit Area (HBAs) on the map. A resource enhancement project improves the quality or quantity (area) of the resource.

Additional information is provided in the document listed below.

Supporting Documents

Resource Enhancement Projects, 10/11/16

Source URL (retrieved on 10/22/2017 - 5:03am):

<https://www.ci.oswego.or.us/planning/resource-enhancement-projects>