

Long Range Planning

The Long Range Planning Division coordinates the City's overall long-range planning efforts, including preparation and evaluation of policy decisions related to community planning, natural resources, quality of life issues, transportation planning, annexations, neighborhood planning, and regional policy coordination and compliance.

Long Range Planning staff also work closely with, and are very much involved in, the functions of the Development Review Division.

Source URL (retrieved on 09/23/2017 - 4:10am): <https://www.ci.oswego.or.us/planning/long-range-planning-0>