More about the Question

In January 2013, the City of Lake Oswego will welcome the 2013-2014 City Council. The majority of the Council will be newly elected – Mayor Studebaker, and Councilors Bowerman, O’Neil and Gustafson. For two members, Councilors Gudman and Kehoe, this is the start of the second half of a term, having already served for two years of their four-year term. Councilor Jordan is completing her second term and has served for six years.

With the majority of the Council being newly elected, this Open City Hall forum is a way for people to welcome the
