

February 13: Movie Screening: Rwanda – Do Scars Ever Fade? With Filmmaker Paul Freedman

Movie Screening: Rwanda – Do Scars Ever Fade? With Filmmaker Paul Freedman

Wednesday, February 13, 7:00 p.m. at Arts Council of Lake Oswego, 510 1st St.

In 2004, Paul Freedman travelled to Rwanda to produce and direct a History Channel special documentary about the Rwandan genocide and its aftermath. "Rwanda—Do Scars Ever Fade?" would go on to earn a Peabody Award, two Emmy nominations, and the IDA's prestigious ABC News/VideoSource Award for best use of news and archival footage. Paul co-wrote and edited the documentary.
