Discussion Groups

The library hosts a number of discussion groups that meet on a regular basis and are facilitated by a librarian on our staff. We discuss books (fiction & non-fiction), movies, current events and more. Be sure to check this page regularly for up to date meeting times and information.

About our Discussion Groups:

- Our conference room will comfortably hold ten people.
- Many book groups find that 8-10 people is just about the right size.
- There is no charge to participate, and there is no need to register.

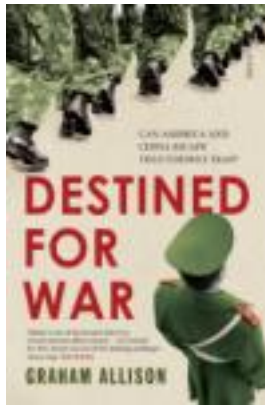

We can also supply information on facilitating book group discussions, deciding what kinds of books lead to rewarding discussions, etc. If you have any questions, give us a call. Happy reading, watching and discussing!
