

Paula Sinclair

First Tuesday Music Series

Paula Sinclair will perform for this special February 4, 7:00-8:30 pm event as part of the Lake Oswego Reads. She will be singing William Stafford poems.

One of fourteen siblings rich in creativity, she began her music career at age 14, playing her guitar and singing in a country duo in and around her native Lexington, Kentucky. Today, living in Portland, Oregon, she is an exceptionally adept solo performer, a dynamic force in her rhythmic duo with percussionist/harmonist Kenny Sawyer, and a versatile powerhouse leading her band, Paula Sinclair & The Contenders.
