A Party Like This Only Happens Once Every 100 Years!
THE LAKE OSWEGO CENTENNIAL FESTIVAL IS THE PLACE TO BE ON JULY 17 FOR A MEMORABLE, ONCE-IN-A-LIFETIME DAY OF LIVE MUSIC, EVENTS, LOCAL FOOD & FAMILY FUN

Lake Oswego celebrates 100 years with a Centennial Festival at historic Luscher Farm and Hazelia Field where the entire family will be treated to live entertainment, elaborate pavilions showcasing the city’s past, present and future, plus lots of family-friendly activities

LAKE OSWEGO – Let’s get this party started! That’s the buzz surrounding Lake Oswego’s upcoming Centennial Festival being planned for Saturday, July 17, 2010 at Clackamas County’s jewels, historic Luscher Farm and Hazelia Field. The Festival, which is expected to host thousands of party-goers, runs from 11 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. and will be followed by a special outdoor screening of “THE BLIND SIDE” movie starting at 9:30 p.m. for the grand finale. As hosts of the birthday bash, the city of Lake Oswego is sending out an open invitation to the entire community and beyond to enjoy an unforgettable day of live entertainment, family-friendly events, incredible foods and beverage, and unique recreational fun.

“We’ve been planning our 100th birthday celebration’s Centennial Festival for almost a year and know it will offer a well-orchestrated celebration of our community’s past, present and future,” said Kathy Kern-Schilling, Special Events Coordinator, City of Lake Oswego. “The live entertainment, family activities, food, beer/wine garden and the unique past, present and future pavilions offer a day-trip destination not just for Lake Oswego citizens but any visitors to the Metro area.”

CENTENNIAL PAVILIONS
Taking center stage will be three unique pavilions each illuminating different aspects of Lake Oswego’s life-past, present and future. The carefully designed displays offer insights into Lake Oswego’s 100-year-old heritage and what its future legacy might be.

THE PAST -- The History Pavilion is a mini-museum of Lake Oswego history:
- Antique appraisals
- Quilt-making
- Old-fashioned ice cream making
- Photos, relics, antique boat, car and water skiing display
- A Retrospective Video of Lake Oswego’s evolution
- Building Blocks Display – a pictorial history of LO neighborhoods
- More
THE PRESENT – The Community Pavilion highlights the work of more than 30 civic organizations that serve as the backbone of Lake Oswego:

- Displays
- Volunteer opportunities
- Family activities
- Childrens’ programs
- More

THE FUTURE – The Sustainability Pavilion showcases sustainable living practices that will help leave a legacy for the next 100 years:

- Test-ride electric bikes
- FREE seeds, plants, coupons
- Interactive kiosks
- Home energy reviews and free compact fluorescent light bulbs
- Video interviews regarding Lake Oswego’s future
- Raffle for trips to Sokol Blosser winery
- Recycling information
- More

CENTENNIAL STAGE
There’s a little something for every musical preference. The music line-up offers a local “LO-Palooza:”

11 a.m. Dick Saunders and the Sucker Creek Jazz Band (Dixieland Jazz)
12:30 p.m. Cloverdayle (Country)
1:45 Portland Taiko (Japanese Drums)
2:00 Intervision (R&B/POP)
3:30 Rhythm Culture (Reggae)
5:00 Lee Highway (Bluegrass)
6:30 Patrick Lamb (Jazz)
7:30 The Brown Sisters (Gospel/R&B)
8:00 Linda Hornbuckle (R&B)

CENTENNIAL FIELD GAMES
Those needing to feed their competitive natures will find high stakes recreation and low impact games at Hazelia Field – located at Luscher Farm – all day long. All ages will find ways to expend their energy:

- Unique Inflatables
- Lawn Games
- Dunk Tank
- Soccer, Lacrosse, Golf, Tiny Tot Tennis activities
- Zumba classes and Tai Chi demonstrations
- More!

MORE CENTENNIAL ENTERTAINMENT
In addition, the Lake Oswego Building Blocks Display, which represents the city’s 20 neighborhoods and areas of interest, will be on display along with the highly-acclaimed mini-documentary, Lake Oswego: A Retrospective, will show on continuous loop. A tethered hot air balloon will offer rides, weather-permitting.
The Lake Oswego Centennial planners remind guests not to bring dogs but encourage them bring your own water bottles to fill at water stations. Stop by the Information Tent near the barn to pick up a map of all the events and activities ongoing at the Festival.

CENTENNIAL SHUTTLES
SPECIAL NOTE: Centennial Shuttles will be running all day long from numerous Lake Oswego locations as there will be absolutely no parking available at Luscher Farm. Nearby parking is available at Lakeridge High School. There will be additional shuttles to transport people from Lakeridge High School to Hazelia Field and Luscher Farm. A shuttle map will be available online at www.lakeoswego100.com.

The Presenting Sponsors of the Lake Oswego Centennial are Prudential Northwest Properties and Lake Oswego Review; Centennial Festival Event Sponsors include Club Sport, Comcast, Eco Shuttle, Energy Trust, Lake View Village, Mary’s Woods, Marylhurst University, PGE, Providence Health Systems, Shorenstein Properties, and Walton Physical Therapy.
