

Gnome Gnews from Blossom:

Gknee-slappin Joke	What's a frog's favorite flower? A croak-us!
Favorite Native Species	Salal and Western Hemlock
Best Bee Concerts	Sting, Bee-yonce and the Bee-Gees
Invertebrates Are Great	Mixed Bumble Bee and Pacific Sideband Snail
Top Sappy Movie	Gnomeo and Juliet
Recently Seen Native Birds	Pileated Woodpecker and Dark-eyed Junco
Pointy Red Hat Hobby	Volunteering in the Natural Areas of the Parks

Gnome Trivia: The iconic red gnome hat is a folklore detail from an ancient Mediterranean fisherman tradition. The fishermen wore white hats at night if they wanted to be seen in the dark, and red hats if they did not. Gnomes are known to be stealthy...just try to find one!

Greenie's Pointy Red Hat Picks:

Do you Gknow this Joke?	What kind of tree can fit into your hand? A palm tree!
Favorite Native Species	Vine Maple and Western Bracken Fern
Top Sport	Gnome Yoga...Gnomaste!
Invertebrates are Great	Goldenrod Crab Spider and Banana Slug
Best Vacation Location	To the Beech-trees, naturally!
Recently Seen Native Birds	Steller's Jay and Cedar Waxwing
Pointy Red Hat Hobby	Restoring the Natural Habitat in the Parks

Gnome Trivia: Gnomes are very affectionate and sentimental. They rub noses to say hello and farewell. Gnomes communicate in a language known as Gnomish or I-Lam na-Ngoldathon. If you Gknow, you Gknow...

Oak Gknows his favorites:

Gnarly Gnome Joke	Why do bees have sticky hair? Bee-cause they use honey-combs!
Favorite Native Species	Nootka Rose and Western Wahoo
Last Book Read	Sherlock Gnomes...Oak lichens mysteries!

Invertebrates Are Great	Crawdad and Western Tiger Swallowtail
Top Sport	Gnome Gnapping
Recently Seen Native Birds	Golden-crowned Kinglet and Great Horned Owl
Pointy Red Hat Hobby	Planting Native Species in the Natural Park Areas

Gnome Trivia: Gnomes are seven times stronger than a human and can live up to 400 years!
 Gnomes are fond of animals, especially burrowing animals like rabbits, squirrels and mice.
 Gnomes live underground and move silently and quickly....making it very difficult to spot them.

