

PUBLIC RECORDS REQUESTS

The City Recorder's office maintains the legislative history, documents, and public records of the city. Individuals have a right to review public records of a public entity, as provided in ORS 192.

The City of Lake Oswego has many records available and searchable at no cost. To begin your search, click here.

Records not available by a website search can be requested through the City Recorder's office. There are three different categories for request and forms, please fill out the records request form that is appropriate for your request to get the fastest possible response. If you are unsure, complete the Public Records Request Form.
