Title of Document: 6.3 LOPR_ Scope of Program Opportunities

Background:

Lake Oswego Parks and Recreation (LOPR) demonstrates the provision of recreation opportunities for different proficiency and socioeconomic levels, racial and ethnic backgrounds, ages and genders through the variety of activities listed in the program and service matrices identified in the Related Documents section.

LOPR program offerings address the basic physical, intellectual, emotional, social, environmental, and spiritual dimensions of health and wellness and fulfill the needs of the community. LOPR believes the Department's offerings bring about socioeconomic equity to all participants, and there is a scholarship program available to support those in need of assistance.

Procedure:

LOPR deploys programs that focus on special interest areas:

- Adults 50+ Life Long Learning
- Human Services
- Sports
- Golf & Tennis
- Cultural Enrichment
- Fitness
- Health & Wellness
- Luscher Farm Organic Education
- Community and Special Events
- Outdoor Recreation (includes natural areas and stewardship community education)

Within each special interest area there are further age and ability categories:

- Preschool
- Youth
- Teen & Adult
- Individual - small - and large group opportunities
- Ability levels such as special needs and beginning, intermediate, expert and master
