Title of Document: 6.5.A LOPR_Behavior Standards & Consequences for Volunteers of Lake Oswego Parks & Recreation Activities (Code of Conduct – Volunteers)

The City of Lake Oswego and the Parks & Recreation Department (LOPR) value the services and contributions of our adult and youth volunteers. Our volunteers have the right to expect to work in an environment that enables them to achieve their full potential and provide the most rewarding contribution possible.

To ensure a consistent, professional, enjoyable, and safe environment for our volunteers and staff, all volunteers are expected to abide by basic behavior standards. For youth volunteers, we encourage their parents or guardians to review and discuss the behavior standards. As a volunteer, you represent the City of Lake Oswego and the Parks & Recreation Department (LOPR). Your participation as a volunteer is your consent to abide by these behavior standards. Failure to abide by the standards may result in the consequences outlined in this document.

1. Every volunteer is expected to exercise respect. This includes, but is not limited to: themselves, other volunteers, staff members, all people and places of business or government.
2. Every volunteer is expected to be an active listener.
3. Every volunteer is expected activity is expected to know and understand the rules of the LOPR facility and rules associated with the activity and follow them. Ask the staff member if you are unaware of the rules regarding the volunteer activity.
4. Every volunteer is expected to cooperate with project operations.
5. As a representative of the City of Lake Oswego, every volunteer is expected to communicate in an appropriate manner. Harsh verbal words, inappropriate tone of voice, foul language, sexually inappropriate behavior, or inappropriate gestures are not tolerated.
6. Every volunteer is expected to express civil conduct. If physical contact is made with another person it must be a welcome gesture and appropriate. Horseplay, unwelcome teasing, pushing, kicking, hitting or fighting, etc. will not be tolerated and may result in suspension or expulsion from the activity or facility.

7. Volunteers have the right to participate in an environment where all can achieve their full potential without being impeded by discrimination or harassment based on race, religion, national origin, age, sex, marital status, political affiliation, veteran's status, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, or any other status protected by applicable federal, state or local nondiscrimination laws. Harassment may be verbal, visual or physical contact conduct.
8. Every volunteer is expected to exercise an attitude that elicits good will towards others and activities.
9. Every volunteer is expected to promote and support a safe, fun and healthy environment through productive participation.
10. Volunteers may not commit or attempt to commit any activity that would constitute a violation of any federal or state criminal statutes or city ordinance. Unlawful activities will be reported to the police.
11. Volunteers may not enter a facility during hours it is not open to the public, including private facility rentals.
 - ❑ Consequences: Any volunteer who engages in discriminatory, harassing, or otherwise objectionable behavior may be subject to disciplinary action and removal from the program. When a volunteer's behavior, adult or child, is deemed inappropriate, they may be dealt with using the following steps.
 1. If a volunteer displays inappropriate behavior, staff members may verbally request that the behavior be discontinued. If the participant is a child, and the behavior does not stop, the parents may be notified immediately and the child may be removed from the activity for that day.
 2. If a volunteer's unacceptable behavior continues on a regular basis, staff members and the volunteer (and their parent if the volunteer is a minor) may meet. A written report may be filed, stating the inappropriate behaviors already demonstrated and the expected changes for the next meeting date. It may also be stated that one more incident of unacceptable behavior may result in the participants' removal from the activity permanently, or for a specific period of time, depending on the severity of the behavior. If a report is filed, it is signed by the volunteer, staff and parent if the volunteer is a minor. One copy will remain at the Parks & Recreation Department (LOPR) and the volunteer will retain another copy.
